

Books Illustrated by
Ekata Mandal

Frog decided to have a festive party
on the fifth of July.

He sent invitations to his friends
Fox, Fawn, and Ferret, and the whole family of fireflies.

Frog's Festive Party

*Written by Laura Appleton-Smith
Published by Flyleaf Publishing, 2025*

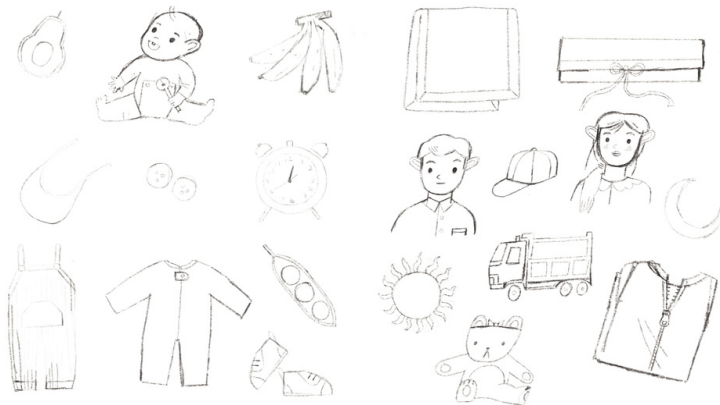

An alphabet book to help learning alphabets to young readers. It is about a very jolly frog, who invites his friends to his summer themed party in the month of July. The story is about friendships and having fun together.

Yaya's Yellow Yarn

Written by Laura Appleton-Smith
Published by Flyleaf Publishing, 2025

An alphabet book to help learning alphabets to young readers. The story is about a little girl who wants to learn knitting from her Grandma.

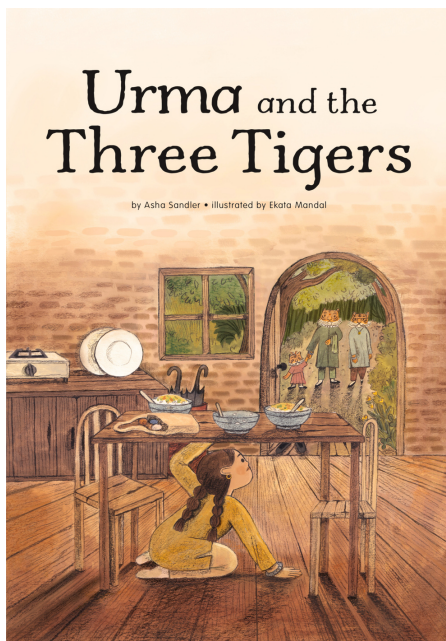

As You Grew

Written by Dana Moneymaker

Published by Blue Balloon books, an imprint of Ballast Books, 2025

"In the blink of an eye, the whole year went by. The little boy grew up yet another size. Looking down on her son while beaming with pride, she thought of the future with tears in her eyes."

As You Grew takes treasured moments and helps you cherish your little one's growth away for safekeeping, reminding you to appreciate every second and showing readers that as a child grows, so does our love for them.

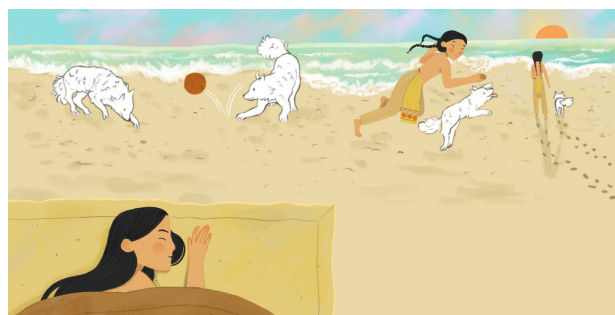

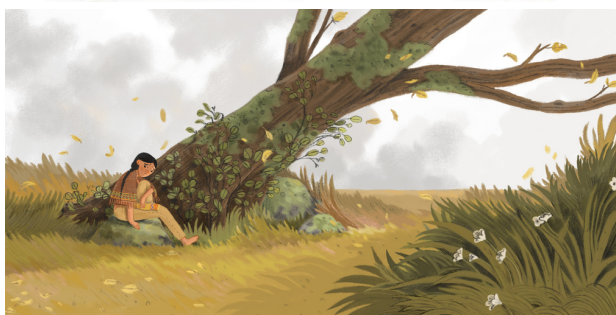

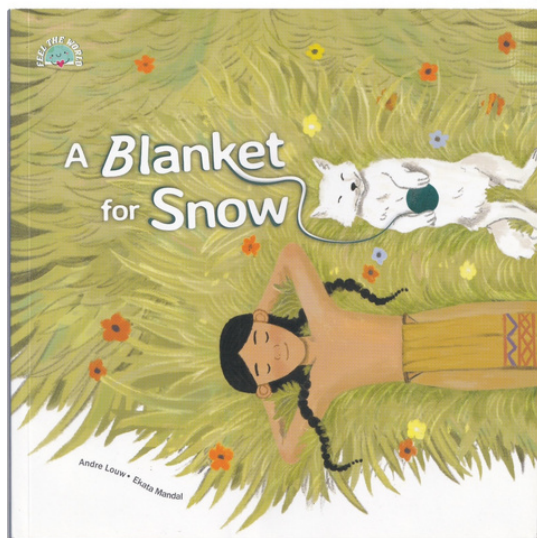

Urma and the Three Tigers

Written by Asha Sandler

Published by Benchmark education, 2024

An adventure unfolds, when Urma loses one of her precious belongings and meets, Mama, Aunt and little tiger unexpectedly in a forest. The story takes a beautiful and warm turn gradually and unveils some beautiful bonds.

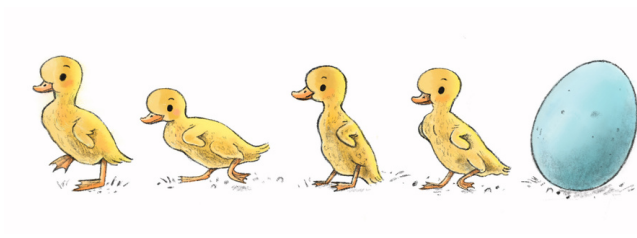

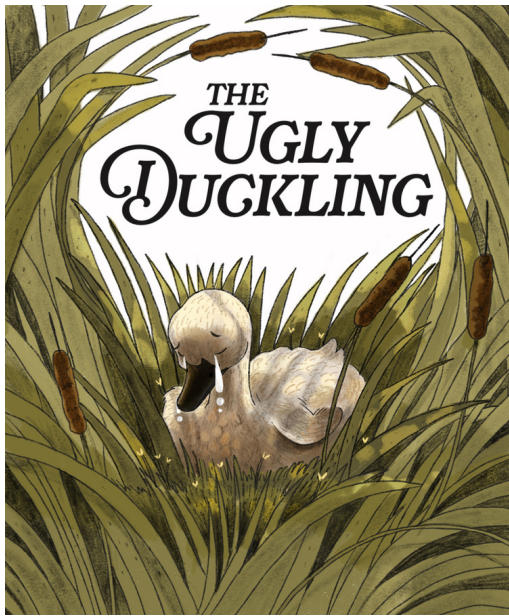

A Blanket for Snow

Written by Andre Louw

Published by Caves Books, 2025

Tahoma's best friend in the world is his dog, Snow. He's the happiest when they are together. But, one day, Tahoma loses Snow, and suddenly he's all alone. With his best friend gone, Tahoma also loses interest in things he used to love. How will Tahoma find his way out of grief?

The Extensive Reading Foundation recognises
A Blanket for Snow as a finalist for the 2026 Language Learner Literature Award in the Young Learners Category

The Ugly Duckling

Written by none other than Hans Christian Andersen

Published by BJU Press, 2024

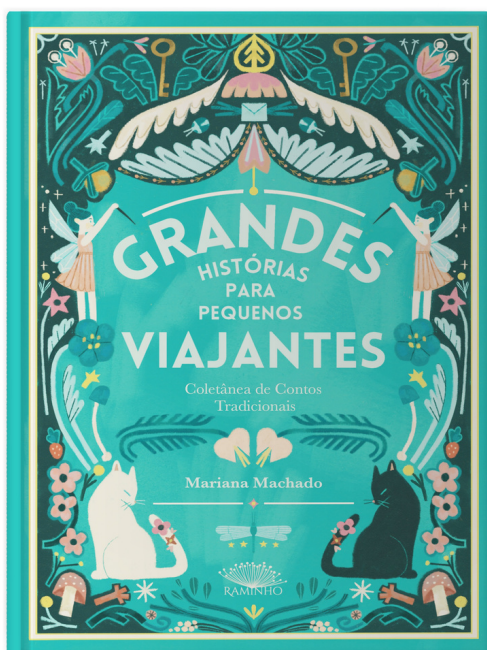

A reimagined version of the famous classic tale of 'The Ugly Duckling' by the by the Danish poet and author Hans Christian Andersen.

The Hawks Need Their Friends

Written by Latoyah Innerarity
Published by FFT education, 2024

A educational text book about a hawk family with their three babies, who after facing a great danger asked their friends for help. To rescue them, their friends jump to rescue and what happens in the end teaches a great lesson for young readers.

GRANDES HISTÓRIAS PARA VIAJANTES

Coletânea de Contos Tradicionais

Adapted by Mariana Machado
Published by Raminho Publishing House, 2024

An adaptation book of 10 old classics by 10 illustrators. Ekata Mandal illustration the story adaptation of 'Swan Lake' and the Book Cover.

How Charlotte overcame her OCD monster

Written by Kirsty Shaw Unpublished

The story is about a little girl Charlotte, who is diagnosed with OCD. Her mother seeks help to her therapist and how she deals with it.